SPOTLIGHT | County Kerry, Ireland

Find the proverbial ‘pot of gold’ in County Kerry, a land filled with hidden treasures. From the foamy seas and staggering cliffs of the Wild Atlantic Way’s Southern Peninsulas to Killarney National Park’s 26,000 acres of woodlands, mountains, and lakes, its glorious scenery stirs the soul. Meander through magical Muckross House and Gardens. Take a traditional and enchanting jaunting car ride to Ross Castle. Delve into the Ring of Beara for quintessentially local experiences.

As you circle the Ring of Kerry, stop to pay homage to King Puck (a wild mountain goat statue) in Killorglin. Behold the Skellig Islands from afar, or ferry to Skellig Michael—a must for Star Wars fans. Savor seafood chowder in Kenmare and soak up Sneem’s colorful charms. Discover what makes welcoming Dingle a favorite for so many people. Without question, you’ll feel richer for visiting this storied part of Ireland.

Sheen Falls Lodge ★★★★★

Nestled along the Wild Atlantic Way, discover five-star splendor at Sheen Falls Lodge, a tranquil oasis on Kenmare Bay in County Kerry. Most of the spacious, well-appointed rooms offer stunning bay, river, or waterfall views. A plethora of exciting outdoor activities await at the adjacent and gorgeous 300-acre Sheen Falls Estate: explore a hidden plantation, try salmon fishing or falconry, take a spin on the complimentary bikes, or simply stroll through the peaceful woodlands. Ease deeper into relaxation with a holistic treatment or therapy at the Easanna Spa, and end the day by a delicious diner at The Falls, a 2 AA Rosette restaurant.
