EXPLORE THE WINE COUNTRY

America's Premier Wine Country

Artisans craft wine from the oldest vineyards in America. Napa and Sonoma have led the resurgence of fine olive oils. Walk the streets of her small towns—if you're lucky, a cheesemaker is next door to a European-style bakery. Indulge. Sit under sheltering California Oaks and feel this gentle earth, ripe with bounty. Drive to the wild Pacific, stopping to visit the redwood families, and dine on fresh seafood with peerless French bread. You've come to a place that's truly blessed by nature.

CALIFORNIA

Sonoma Culinary & Wine Discovery

America's original wine country welcomes you. Healdsburg, one of the best small towns in America, is a pure charmer with a fine array of dining and eclectic shops. In this region of bounty, you'll want a first-class cooking class. Savor the goodness. Follow it up with an intimate winery tour and tasting. Relax. Now, head out to the wild California coast.

Redwood forests are a sanctuary of unparalleled grace. Consider ziplining through the trees. Pure joy. Follow the Russian River west until it meets the Pacific, and enjoy an adventure with a naturalist. After two days of ocean air, Sonoma's historic plaza calls. Taste wine on a mountain top, take in the views, ride horseback through a vineyard estate, and top it off with an exquisite cheese-making class. Life is beautiful.

Napa Wine Country Escape

A private chauffeur takes you from the airport to your Napa hotel. Two exquisite, sparkling wineries begin your day, followed by a walk through the DiRosa sculpture gardens—this wonder could only happen in wine country. Take a break in Sonoma, diving into eclectic shops and bakeries, and then revel in a private cave tour at the legendary Buena Vista, founded in 1857.

The Napa Valley wine train is a tasty prelude to the Castello di Amorosa winery. A castle in Napa? Yes. The following day, your chauffeur welcomes you to an enchanted redwood grove. Winding through lush vineyards and orchards, you'll arrive at Francis Ford Coppola's estate, home of sixty unique wines. The vintners at each winery tease magic from the soil. Your Napa sojourn is the stuff of memories.
